Survey of Total Employment and Earnings
1 October 2004 to 31 December 2004

When contacting Stats SA please quote this number

Purpose of the survey
The Survey of Total Employment and Earnings (STEE) is a quarterly survey covering a sample of enterprises in the formal non-agricultural business sector of the South African economy. The information received is used to estimate key economic statistics of employment and income from employment, used mainly as an input to the Gross Domestic Product (GDP). Survey results are published in the statistical release P0275 – Survey of Employment and Earnings.

Collection authority
The information required is collected under Section 16 of the Statistics Act, 1999 (Act No. 6 of 1999). Your co-operation is sought in completing and returning this questionnaire by the due date.

Confidentiality
According to Section 17 of the Statistics Act, 1999 (Act No. 6 of 1999), your completed questionnaire remains confidential to Statistics South Africa (Stats SA).

Due date
Please complete this questionnaire and return it in the business reply service envelope or fax it to Stats SA by 10 January 2005. Stats SA recommends that you retain a copy for your use to consult in case of a query.

Please note

Complete all questions for the enterprise specified on the front page. If actual figures are not available, please supply estimates.

An enterprise is a legal unit, or a combination of legal units that includes and directly controls all functions necessary to carry out its production activities.

Part 1 - Employment

Paid employment

At work
A person who, during the reference period, performed some work (for at least one hour) for a salary or wage or profit, in cash or in kind.

With a job but not at work
A person who, having already worked in his/her job, was temporarily not at work, e.g. for maternity leave, during the reference period, but had a formal attachment to his/her job.

Self-employment

At work
A person who, during the reference period, performed some work for profit or family gain, in cash or in kind.

With an enterprise but not at work
A person owning an enterprise, which may be a business or a service enterprise, who was temporarily not engaged in any activity during the reference period.

Include
- All directors, e.g. those who received a salary, those who did not receive a salary and those who received a fee.
- Executive, managerial, casual and any other employers/employees who are not included on the main payroll.
- All self-employed persons in this enterprise, e.g. working proprietors, sole owners and joint owners.
- Employers/employees paid by commission only, with no salary or wage component.
- Employers/employees who received payment through the payroll of the Compensation Commissioner’s Compensation Fund, e.g. employees on maternity leave and not paid by this enterprise.
- Employers/employees based abroad but paid from South Africa, e.g. embassy employees.

Exclude
- Subcontractors and consultants who are self-employed and not part of this enterprise.
- Employers/employees based in South Africa but paid from abroad, e.g. embassy employees.
1. State the total number of persons employed (see the definition on page 2) in this enterprise at the end of each month for the period 1 October 2004 to 31 December 2004.
