Introduction

The Quarterly employment statistics (QES) is an enterprise-based sample survey conducted by Statistics South Africa (Stats SA). The samples are drawn from private non-agricultural businesses such as factories, firms, offices and stores, as well as from national, provincial and local government entities. The definition of industries is based on the System of National Accounts (SNA) and is in line with Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities (SIC), Fifth Edition, Report No. 09-90-02 of January 1993.

This survey covers employment statistics of the following industries:

- mining and quarrying;
- manufacturing;
- electricity, gas and water supply;
- construction;
- wholesale and retail trade, repair of motor vehicles, motor cycles and personal and household goods, and hotels and restaurants;
- transport, storage and communication;
- financial intermediation, insurance, real estate and business services; and
- community, social and personal services.

Key findings: Employment and earnings for the quarter ending June 2025

*Revised estimates.

Table A shows that total employment decreased by 80 000 or -0,8% quarter-on-quarter, from 10 589 000 in March 2025 to 10 509 000 in June 2025. This was due to decreases in the following industries: community services (-53 000 or -1,9%), trade (-10 000 or -0,4%), manufacturing (-9 000 or -0,7%), construction (-7 000 or -1,2%), transport (-2 000 or -0,4%) and business services (-2 000 or -0,1%).

However, the following industries showed an increase: Mining (2 000 or 0,4%) and electricity(1 000 or 1,6%).

Total employment decreased by 229 000 or -2,1% year-on-year between June 2024 and June 2025.

Total	9 468	9 457	9 413	-44	-0,5	-55	-0,6

*Revised estimates.

Table B shows that full-time employment decreased by 44 000 or -0,5% quarter-on-quarter, from 9 457 000 in March 2025 to 9 413 000 in June 2025. This was due to decreases in the following industries: community services (-14 000 or -0,6%), business services (-9 000 or -0,4%), manufacturing (-8 000 or -0,7%), construction (-7 000 or -1,3%), trade (-6 000 or -0,3%), transport (-2 000 or -0,4%), while electricity remain unchanged.

However, the mining industry increased by 2 000 or 0,4%.

Full-time employment decreased by 55 000 or -0,6% year-on-year between June 2024 and June 2025.

*Revised estimates.

Data for mining industry is obtained from the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (see explanatory notes). At this stage, the Department is unable to provide data items with regard to part-time employees.

Table C shows that part-time employment decreased by 36 000 or -3,2% quarter-on-quarter, from 1 132 000 in March 2025 to 1 096 000 in June 2025. This was due to decreases in the following industries: community services (-39 000 or -8,1%), trade (-4 000 or -1,6%), and manufacturing (-1 000 or -1,2%), while construction and transport remained unchanged.

However, there were increases reported by the following industries: business services (7 000 or 2,9%) and electricity (1 000 or 100%).

Part-time employment decreased by 174 000 or -13,7% year-on-year between June 2024 and June 2025.

*Revised estimates.

Data for mining industry is obtained from the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (see explanatory notes). At this stage, the Department is unable to provide data items with regard to bonuses and overtime payments separately.

Table F shows that bonuses paid to employees decreased by R19,3 billion or -25,4% from R75,8 billion in March 2025 to R56,5 billion in June 2025. This was due to decreases in the following industries: business services, manufacturing, trade and community services.

However the following industries transport, construction, and electricity reported an increase.

Year-on-year bonus payments increased by R2,7 billion or 5,1% between June 2024 and June 2025.

Table H shows that average monthly earnings paid to employees increased by 3,4% from R28 322 in February 2025 to R29 290 in May 2025.

Year-on-year average monthly earnings paid to employees increased by 6,5% between May 2024 and May 2025.

Key differences between the Quarterly labour force survey (QLFS) and the Quarterly employment statistics survey (QES)

There are two official sources of employment statistics, the Quarterly employment statistics (QES) which is establishment-based and the Quarterly labour force survey (QLFS) which is household-based. Each survey has its strengths and limitations. For example, the QES cannot provide information on the following:

- description of the employed e.g. their demographic profile, education level, hours of work etc.; and
- unemployment and descriptors of the unemployed.

The (QLFS) is a survey of households that collects information from approximately 30 000 dwelling units and collects data on the labour market activities of individuals; whereas (QES) is an establishment-based survey that collects information from non-agricultural businesses and organisations from approximately 20 000 units. The numerous conceptual and methodological differences between the household and establishment-based surveys result in an important distinction in the employment estimates derived from the surveys. Among these are:

- The household survey includes agricultural workers, self-employed workers whose businesses are unincorporated, unpaid family workers and private household workers among the employed. These groups are excluded from the establishment-based survey.
- The household survey is limited to workers who are 15 years and older. The establishment-based survey is not limited by age.
- The household survey has no duplication of individuals because individuals are counted only once, even if they hold more than one job. In the establishment-based survey, employees working at more than one job and thus appearing on more than one payroll are counted separately for each appearance.
- QLFS includes income tax, value-added tax (VAT) and the number of employees in determining the formal sector while QES use only VAT with annual turnover greater than 300 000.
- QLFS allows proxy respondents, this can introduce misclassification of items e.g. formal/informal classification.

	QLFS	QES
Coverage	Private households and workers' hostels.	Payroll of VAT registered businesses.
	Non-institutional population (15 years and older).	Employees only.
	Employment (including the informal sector; private households; agriculture and small businesses).	Formal sector (excluding agriculture).
Sample size	30 000 dwelling units in which households reside.	±20 000 VAT registered businesses.
Reference period	One week prior to the interview.	Payroll at the end of the reference quarter.
Formal sector definition (excluding Agriculture and Private households)	Employers and own-account workers registered for VAT or income tax.	Excludes agriculture and private households.
	Employees paying income tax and those not paying tax but working for firms with five or more workers.	Employees on the payroll of VAT registered businesses.

Statistics based on sample surveys are subject to both sampling and non-sampling error. When a sample, rather than the entire population is surveyed, there is a chance that the sample estimates may differ from the true population values they represent. The component of this difference that occurs because samples differ by chance is known as sampling error and its variability is measured by the standard error of the estimate. The household and enterprise based surveys are also affected by non-sampling error, which may occur for many reasons, including the failure to sample a segment of the population, inability to obtain information for all respondents in the sample, inability or unwillingness of respondents to provide correct information on a timely basis, mistakes made by respondents and errors made in the collection or processing of the data.

Detailed employment changes by industry

The mining industry reported an annual decrease of 6 000 employees or -1,3% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of 2 000 employees or 0,4% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in chrome, coal, PGM and gold mining.

See explanatory note on page 61.

The manufacturing industry reported an annual decrease of 18 000 employees or -1,4% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of 9 000 employees or -0,7% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in the manufacturing of food beverages and tobacco, transport equipment, furniture, manufacturing n.e.c.; recycling and textiles, clothing and leather

The electricity, gas and water supply industry reported an annual increase of 1 000 employees or 1,6% June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of 1 000 employees or 1,6% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in employment in electricity, gas, steam and water supply.

The construction industry remained unchanged in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of 7 000 employees or -1,2% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in building completion and building installation.

The wholesale and retail trade; repair of motor vehicles, motor cycles and personal and household goods; hotels and restaurants industry reported an annual decrease of 1 000 employees or 0,0% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of 10 000 employees or -0,4% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in motor trade and hotels and restaurants.

The transport, storage and communication industry reported an annual decrease of 3 000 employees or -0,6% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of 2 000 employees or -0,4% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in land transport and transport via pipelines and post and telecommunications.

The financial intermediation, insurance, real estate and business services industry reported an annual increase of 23 000 employees or 0,9% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of 2 000 employees or -0,1% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in business activities n.e.c, research and development, and activities auxiliary to financial intermediation.

The community, social and personal services industry reported an annual decrease of 225 000 employees or -7,4% in June 2024 compared with June 2025.. There was a quarterly decrease of 53 000 employees or -1,9% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in employment in the provincial departments, national departments, local government, health and social work and recreational, cultural and sporting activities.

Detailed changes in gross earnings paid to employees

Gross earnings paid to employees in the mining industry reflected an annual increase of R1,4 billion or 2,9% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R1,1 billion or 2,2% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in PGM, gold, chrome and iron mining.

See explanatory note on page 61.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the manufacturing industry reflected an annual increase of R2,1 billion or 2,3% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R216 million or 0,2% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings paid in manufacturing of wood and products of wood and cork, except furniture, articles of straw and painting materials, paper and paper products, publishing, printing and reproduction of recorded media, basic metals, fabricated metal products, machinery and equipment and office, accounting and computing machinery; food, beverages and tobacco, textiles, clothing and leather

Gross earnings paid to employees in the electricity, gas and water supply industry reflected an annual increase of R1,1 billion or 11,0% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R415 million or 3,8% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in the electricity, gas, steam and water supply and collection, purification and distribution of water.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the construction industry reflected an annual increase of R2,6 billion or 5,9% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R2,3 billion or 5,3% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in building of complete constructions or parts thereof, building installation, building completion and renting of construction/demolition equipment with operators.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the wholesale and retail trade; repair of motor vehicles, motor cycles and personal and household goods; hotels and restaurants industry reflected an annual increase of R4,7 billion or 3,5% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R2,6 billion or 1,9% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in the wholesale trade, retail trade and motor trade.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the transport, storage and communication industry reflected an annual increase of R1,0 billion or 2,1% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R1,5 billion or 3,1% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in post and telecommunications; supporting and auxiliary transport activities; land transport and transport via pipelines.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the financial intermediation, insurance, real estate and business services industry reflected an annual increase of R9,2 billion or 3,5% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly decrease of R14,1 billion or -4,9% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to decreases in gross earnings in financial intermediation (i.e. Banks) except insurance and pension funding, activities auxiliary to financial intermediation and insurance and pension funding.

Gross earnings paid to employees in the community, social and personal services industry reflected an annual increase of R10,6 billion or 3,4% in June 2024 compared with June 2025. There was a quarterly increase of R8,2 billion or 2,6% in June 2025 compared to March 2025. This was mainly due to increases in gross earnings in provincial departments, national departments, health and social work, local government, extra Budgetary institutions.

Explanatory notes

Introduction

This publication contains the results of the Quarterly employment statistics (QES) survey of enterprises in the formal non-agricultural business sector of the South African economy. The survey is designed to obtain information regarding: the number of persons employed in the organisation; gross earnings paid; bonuses paid; overtime payments; and severance, termination and redundancy payments paid to employees for each month of the reference quarter.

Part 1 deals with the estimation of the number of employees and their earnings.

Part 2 deals with the estimation of average monthly earnings.

Scope of the survey

1. This survey covers employment statistics of the following industries according to the Standard Industrial Classification of All Economic Activities (SIC), Fifth edition, January 1993:

- mining and quarrying industry;
- manufacturing industry;
- electricity, gas and water supply industry;
- construction industry;
- wholesale and retail trade; repair of motor vehicles, motor cycles and personal and household goods; hotels and restaurants industry;
- transport, storage and communication industry;
- financial intermediation, insurance, real estate and business services industry; and
- community, social and personal services industry.

Classification

2. The Standard Industrial Classification of All Economic Activities (SIC), Fifth edition, January 1993, was used to classify the statistical units in the survey. The SIC is based on the 1989 International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities (ISIC), with suitable adaptations for local conditions. Statistics in this publication are only presented at the SIC major division (one digit) level. Each enterprise is classified to the industry which reflects the predominant activity of the enterprise.

Statistical unit

3. The statistical unit for the collection of information is an enterprise. An enterprise is a legal unit or a combination of legal units that includes and directly controls all functions necessary to carry out its production activities.

Purpose of the survey

4. The Quarterly employment statistics survey is a quarterly survey covering a sample of approximately 20 000 (VAT registered) private and public enterprises in the formal non-agricultural sector of the South African economy. The information received is used to estimate employment and gross earnings that are used as inputs to the gross domestic product (GDP) and to estimate key economic statistics on average monthly earnings that are mainly used for monitoring economic indicators of the South African economy.

- Mining 5. Stats SA receives information regarding the mining and quarrying industry from the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy. The information for the latest quarter is preliminary and will be revised by the Minerals Bureau as soon as they receive more information from the different mines. Users must take note that gross earnings estimates exclude severance, termination and redundancy payments paid during the reference quarter.
- Notes on estimates 6. Average monthly earnings statistics represent average gross (before tax) earnings of employees and do not relate to the earnings of the 'average' person. Estimates of average monthly earnings are derived by dividing estimates of monthly total earnings by estimates of number of employees. Changes in the average may be affected not only by changes in the level of earnings of employees but also by changes in the overall composition of the wage and salary earner segment of the labour force. There are several aspects which can contribute to compositional changes, including variations over time in the proportions of full-time, part-time and casual employees.
- Reliability estimates of 7. Inaccuracies may occur because of imperfections in reporting by enterprises and errors made with the collection and processing of the data. Inaccuracies of this kind are referred to as non-sampling errors. Every effort is made to reduce non-sampling errors to a minimum by designing the questionnaire carefully, undertaking pilot studies, editing the data and efficient operating procedures. Fluctuations may occur in consecutive quarters as a result of seasonal and economic factors.
- Standard errors 8. The estimates in this publication are based on a sample drawn from units in the surveyed population. As a result of the entire population not being surveyed, the published estimates are subject to sampling error. The most common way of quantifying such sampling error is to calculate the standard error for the published estimates or statistics.
- Effects of rounding 9. (a) Estimates of average monthly earnings are rounded to the nearest rand. Percentage changes are calculated on the actual values and may differ from calculations on rounded estimates. The sum of the rounded industry estimates do not necessarily add up to the total.
- (b) Estimates of employment are rounded to the nearest thousand, while earnings are rounded to the nearest million. Percentage changes are calculated on the actual values and may differ from calculations on rounded estimates. The sum of the rounded industry estimates do not necessarily add to the total.
- Response rate 10. Proportion of eligible respondents who completed a questionnaire with usable information to the total number of eligible respondents.
- Revised figures 11. Figures for the quarters published in this release are preliminary and may be revised in subsequent publications.

Technical notes1. Response rate

The response rate for the quarter ended June 2025 was 83,9%.

2. Confidence intervals

The estimated population value will be contained within the interval between the lower and upper 95% confidence limits.

The 95% confidence intervals of a population parameter (gross salaries and wages) are obtained as follows:

Lower limit

= lower 95% confidence limit of a population parameter

= estimate – 1,96*Standard Error (estimate)

and

Upper limit

= upper 95% confidence limit of a population parameter

= estimate + 1,96*Standard Error (estimate)

$$2.1 \text{ Standard Error (SE)} = \frac{\text{upper limit} - \text{lower limit}}{2 \times 1,96}$$

$$2.2 \text{ Relative Standard Error (RSE)} = \frac{SE(\text{estimate})}{\text{estimate}} \times 100$$

Glossary

Annual percentage change	An annual percentage change is the change in the employment, the gross earnings or the average monthly earnings of the given period compared with the employment, the gross earnings or the average monthly earnings of the corresponding period of the previous year expressed as a percentage.
Average monthly earnings at constant prices	Average monthly earnings at constant prices measure average monthly earnings after the direct effects of inflation have been eliminated. The deflator used to deflate the current average earnings is the consumer price index (December 2024=100).
Average monthly earnings at current prices	Average monthly earnings at current prices are calculated by dividing the total gross earnings, excluding severance, termination and redundancy payments, for the reference month by the number of employees as at the end of the reference month.
Casual employees	Casual employees are employees who fall neither within the 'permanent employee' category nor within that of a 'temporary employee'. Such employees are typically working daily or hourly. Employers can dispense with their services at a very short notice, usually not exceeding a period of one week. Casual employees are not entitled to benefits such as paid leave and medical aid contributions paid by employers. Casual employees can be part-time or full time.
Enterprises	Enterprises are legal units, or a combination of legal units, that include and directly control all functions necessary to carry out their production activities.
Formal sector	The formal sector includes all businesses that are registered in any way.
Full-time employees	Full-time employees are those permanent, temporary and casual employees who normally work the agreed number of hours in their particular occupation or, if the agreed number of hours does not apply, who normally work 40 hours or more per week. This excludes the self-employed and working proprietors. (Refer to notes on number of employees below).
Gross earnings	Gross earnings are payments for ordinary-time, standard or agreed hours during the reference period for all permanent, temporary, casual, managerial and executive employees before taxation and other deductions for the reference period. This includes salaries and wages; commission if a retainer, wage or salary was also paid; employer's contribution to pension, provident, medical aid, sick pay and other funds; allowances; etc., but excludes earnings of sole proprietors or partners of unincorporated businesses; commission where a retainer, wage or salary was not paid; payments to subcontractors and consultants who are not part of the enterprise; and severance, termination and redundancy payments. Gross earnings are the total sum of the earnings including performance and others bonuses; overtime payments for the three months of the reference quarter (e.g. gross earnings of quarter ended September is the sum of total earnings of July, August and September).

Industries	Industries consist of groups of enterprises engaged in the same or similar kind of activity. The definition of industries is based on the System of National Accounts (SNA) and is in line with that in the Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities (SIC) , Fifth Edition, Report No. 09-90-02 of January 1993.
Informal sector	The informal sector consists of those organisations that are not registered in any way. They are generally small in nature, and are seldom run from business premises. Instead, they are generally run from homes, street pavements and other informal arrangements.
Number of employees	The number of employees is the number of people employed by the organisation who received payment (in salaries; wages; commission, in addition to a retainer, salary or wage; piece rates; or payments in kind) for any part of the reference period. This excludes independent contractors and consultants; working proprietors; sole and joint owners; and employees paid on a commission basis where a retainer, salary or wage was not paid. The number of employees refers to the number of people employed at the end of the reference period (see Reference quarter/month/period below).
Ordinary-time hours	Ordinary-time hours are those hours actually worked during normal periods of work. These hours include hours of paid leave taken during the reference period (e.g. sick leave, annual leave) and hours of normal shift work. Ordinary-time hours paid for exclude overtime hours worked, hours relating to payment in advance and hours relating to back pay.
Overtime hours paid for	Overtime hours paid for are those hours worked in excess of ordinary-time hours, standard or agreed hours of work that were paid for in the reference period.
Overtime payments	Overtime payments refer to payment for hours worked and paid for in excess of ordinary-time hours, standard or agreed hours worked for the reference period. Penalty payments that relate to overtime are also included.
Part-time employees	Part-time employees are those permanent, temporary or casual employees who are not full-time employees as defined above or who normally work less than 40 hours per week. This excludes the self-employed at work or with an enterprise but temporarily not at work.
Performance and other bonuses	Performance and other bonuses cover seasonal, end-of-year and one-time bonuses and additional payments supplementary to normal payments. Performance and other bonuses include profit-sharing bonuses, merit bonuses, incentive bonuses, total amounts of payments that were paid during the reference period but relate to other pay periods, e.g. annual leave, thirteenth cheques. Performance and other bonuses exclude reimbursements for expenses incurred whilst conducting employer's business; severance, termination and redundancy payments.
Permanent employees	Permanent employees are employees appointed on an open-ended contract with no stipulated termination date, and who are entitled to benefits such as paid leave and medical aid contributions paid by employers. This excludes the self-employed at work.

Quarterly change	percentage	A quarterly percentage change is a change in the employment, the gross earnings or the average monthly earnings of the given quarter/month compared with the employment, the gross earnings or the average monthly earnings of the previous quarter/month expressed as a percentage.
Reference quarter/month/period		Reference quarter/period in part 1 of this publication refers to the three months up to the end of March, June, September or December. Reference month/period in part 2 of this publication refers to the months of October, November and December.
Severance, and redundancy payments	termination	Severance, termination and redundancy payments include payments of accumulated leave made to employees who finished work during the reference period as well as payments intended to compensate for loss of employment.
Temporary employees		Temporary employees are employees appointed on a short-term contract basis for periods normally not exceeding one year. Such contracts would typically stipulate a termination date, but could be renewed by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee. This excludes the self-employed with an enterprise but temporarily not at work.

General information

Stats SA publishes approximately 300 different statistical releases each year. It is not economically viable to produce them in more than one of South Africa's 12 official languages. Since the releases are used extensively, not only locally but also by international economic and social-scientific communities, Stats SA releases are published in English only.

Stats SA has copyright on this publication. Users may apply the information as they wish, provided that they acknowledge Stats SA as the source of the basic data wherever they process, apply, utilise, publish or distribute the data; and also that they specify that the relevant application and analysis (where applicable) result from their own processing of the data.
